

report may be combined with the report of the commissioner of insurance on fire and marine insurance.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved August 23, 1915.

No. 866, A.]

[Published August 26, 1915.

CHAPTER 630.

AN ACT to renumber section 172—42 of the statutes to be subsection 1 of said section and adding to the same section two new subsections, making appropriations for the state conservation commission.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 172—42 of the statutes is renumbered to be subsection 1 of said section.

SECTION 2. There are added to section 172—42 of the statutes two new subsections to be numbered and to read: (Section 172—42.) 2. There is appropriated on July 1, 1915, five thousand dollars, and on July 1, 1916, five thousand dollars, payable from any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, for the state conservation commission of Wisconsin for property repairs and maintenance.

3. There is appropriated on July 1, 1915, four thousand dollars, and on July 1, 1916, four thousand dollars, payable from any moneys in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, for the state conservation commission of Wisconsin for permanent property and improvements.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication and the appropriations herein made on July 1, 1915, shall be treated as though this act became a law on July 1, 1915.

Approved August 23, 1915.

No. 867, A.]

[Published August 26, 1915.

CHAPTER 631.

AN ACT to repeal chapter 72, laws of 1915, and to amend section 894a of the statutes, relating to village separate road districts.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Chapter 72, laws of 1915, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. Section 894a of the statutes is amended to read: Section 894a. Every village in this state, whether such village be incorporated under general or special law or both, shall constitute a separate road district. No part of the streets or highway of any such village shall be in any road district established by the town board, nor under the control of the town officers, provided that bridges across navigable streams * * * shall be built, paid for, maintained and repaired by the town and village jointly, the expense to be borne by each in proportion to their equalized valuation as is fixed by the county board, * * * where such navigable stream is the boundary line between any village and any town; or where the bridge is built wholly within the limits of an incorporated village and the span of such bridge exceeds two hundred feet in length.

SECTION 3. All acts or proceedings taken under chapter 72, laws of 1915, are hereby validated.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon passage and publication.

Approved August 23, 1915.

No. 689, S.]

[Published August 27, 1915.

CHAPTER 632.

AN ACT levying the state taxes for the years 1915 and 1916 as required by section 5, article VIII of the Constitution.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. To provide for the estimated expenses of the state of Wisconsin for the present fiscal year in excess of the income otherwise applicable thereto a state tax of one thousand dollars is hereby levied upon the taxable property of the state for the year 1915, in addition to all other taxes and charges authorized by existing laws for such year, such levy not to be increased or diminished by any executive or administrative officer, and the same shall be apportioned by the secretary of state to the several counties, and be apportioned according to law by the several county clerks of such counties to the taxing districts therein and be collected and accounted for according to law.

SECTION 2. To provide for the estimated expenses of the state of Wisconsin for the succeeding fiscal year, in excess of the income otherwise applicable thereto, a state tax of one thousand dollars is hereby levied upon the taxable property of the state for the year 1916 in addition to all other taxes and charges authorized by existing laws for such year, such levy not to be increased or diminished by any executive or administrative officer, and the same shall be apportioned by the secretary of state